Release of Payment and Performance Bonds and Agreement of Indemnity

Bonneville County, ("Obligee"), as obligee on those certain payment and performance bonds (the "Bonds"), numbered 5220013, on which SureTec Insurance Company ("SureTec") is surety, and Wheelhaus, Inc. ("Principal") is principal, hereby requests the cancellation of the Bonds and the return of any unearned premium to Principal. In order to induce Surety to return any unearned premium, Obligee warrants, represents, and agrees with Surety and Principal as follows:

1. Obligee fully, finally, and forever releases the Bonds and all rights thereon, whether known or unknown) and agrees that the Bonds shall be considered void ab initio and of no force and effect.

2. Obligee warrants and represents that Obligee has not represented to any third party that the Bonds were issued and has not furnished copies of the Bonds to any person or entity. Obligee has returned the original Bonds and destroyed all copies of the Bonds in existence.

3. Obligee warrants and represents that no work has commenced by Principal under the contract covered by the Bonds.

4. Obligee agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold Surety harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, demands, expense (including attorney's fees) made or that may hereafter be made by any person or entity against Surety in connection with, or as the result of the Surety's original execution of, the Bonds.

5. The obligations of Obligee hereunder are due, payable, and performable at the home office of Surety in Houston, Harris County, Texas.

6. Obligee understands and agrees that Surety is relying upon the representations made herein, and the obligations and promises of Obligee undertaken herein, in returning premium or taking other actions in connection with Principal's bond relationship with Surety in direct reliance thereon.

7. In as much as Bonneville County never received a bond, the County has no problem releasing the bond.

Signed this 10th day of November, 2016.
